Sautelle's Circus.

The great Sig. Sautelle colossal $100,000 menagerie, royal Roman hippodrome three-ring circus and historical wild west will exhibit at Barre, Friday afternoon and evening August 14. More than twice their former size, the Sautelle shows this season present an imperial programme. There are over 300 employees and among this number are artists from all quarters of the globe, including champion riders, who display every conceivable form and diverse figure of equestrianism; peerless tumblers and acrobats, champions of the juggling art; past masters of acrobatic endeavor and accomplishment. Prominent among the newest numbers is an act in which 65 horses and ponies of varying size are used. All gather in one large ring, forming a pyramid with a beautiful white horse at the apex. On this one animal sits the only rider in the group. When all are in position the horses move in various directions in perfect harmony with the music provided by the concert band. This is but one of the many features to be viewed at Sautelle's new big shows.

IT'S EPIDEMIC,
THESE BARGAIN SALES.

There's Dollars in Them For You.

These bargain sales not only move out odd lots but, at prices made on regular goods at this time, turn them over into cash, making room that we must have for Fall purchases.

LADIES' TAILORED SUITS.

If we knew that these Suits would be away out of style in two months' time we would not sell them at any less. As it looks now they will be correct for Fall. If we knew this to be a fact we would withdraw this Suit sale at once. Until we know more about the Fall demands these beautiful Suits will be sold at half price.

BARGAINS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

Follow last week's bargain sheet this week. All goods not sold that were advertised on that sheet will be sold at same prices this week. It's a little the best list of bargains ever offered by us and there is no question as to your saving money at this August Sale.
